

MEETINGMAX INVITES YOU TO JOIN US FOR AN UNCONVENTIONAL EXPERIENCE

This year we embrace all levels of users by providing separate breakouts based on your experience. Are you brand new to housing and still need to refine your product knowledge and understanding of your system's capabilities? We have sessions for you. Have you successfully executed years of housing projects and want advanced user training with other experts of the system? We have sessions for you also.

Thanks to everyone for your session requests. This year's lineup of education will include the following:

Online Housing 101

A new user's guide to operating a housing bureau

Advanced User Series

A look at your system through a complex lens

Hotel Relations

How to deal with the ever changing staff, properties that don't pay and a host of other hotel joys

Post Event Reconciliation

A look into best practices of closing an event once it's completed

Handling Objections

Proactive guidelines and practical solutions for dealing with your hotels and planners

Overcoming Obstacles

A creative team project accessing knowledge from your peers

The Future is Friendly

Where can the Meetingmax System be in 5 years

The Business of Housing

An executive management session on how to run your bureau as a business

Simpleview Integration

A first glimpse of Meetingmax connected with Simpleview

Data Details

What to do with the data you have & how to process it

Hidden Profit

Maximizing the revenue generators in your system

MEETINGMAX 2011 UNCONVENTION - Vancouver | British Columbia

Wednesday April 27 - Friday April 29

Cost of event is $595 USD for the first guest and $450 USD for each additional guest. This includes all meals/drinks, activities, transportation and learning sessions. Accommodation and air not included.